

Dear FCC, As a 50 year ham and a life member of the ARRL, I agree with the three classes of license. I do believe that code should be required for general and extra class. I do not believe that the beginner class should have phone/data privileges on the HF bands. These bands are already very crowded and this would take away incentive to upgrade. Thank You, Joe